We play
colourful music

Our cooperation with Germany

Since 2015 the musical partnership between Yared Music School Addis Abeba and Johann-Sebastian-Bach-Musikschule Leipzig, Germany, is refreshed and renewed. As part of that we will fly to Leipzig for workshops and concerts. A great opportunity to be ambassadors of Ethiopian cultural life.

Come and enjoy colourful concert evenings

At this concerts we offer a very special experience. We combine famous classical pieces with our own traditional music, creating a unique sound that will certainly excite you. Many musical friends will support us to offer you a fabulous evening.

Who we are

Our ability to play wonderful classical pieces is well recognised. All players of the Yared Music School Young Orchestra are young, talented and energetic individuals.

This Orchestra is the first of its kind in Ethiopia. That is why can bring a new and exciting experience to your ears, mind and heart.

A different colourful kind of music

We are young musicians who would like to introduce you to a beautiful new sound. Our mixture of styles - traditional Ethiopian music and the western classical music - is really refreshing.

Many people - including professional teachers - appreciate the sound of the Yared Music School Young Orchestra. We can definitely change the peoples' idea of music.
